   For ever and for ever when I move.”

3. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:
   “The voice I hear this passing night was heard
   In ancient days by emperor and clown;
   Perhaps the self-same song that found a path
   Through the sad heart of Ruth, when, sick for home,
   She stood in tears amid the alien corn;”

4. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:
   “The naked hulk alongside came,
   And the twain were casting dice;
   ‘The game is done! I’ve won! I’ve won!’
   Quoth she, and whistles thrice.”

5. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:
   “Our birth is but a sleep and a forgetting;
   The Soul that rises with us, our life’s Star,
   Hath had elsewhere its setting,
   And cometh from afar;
   Not in entire forgetfulness,
   And not in utter nakedness.”
6. Discuss Coleridge's critique of Wordsworth's views on poetic language.

(d) Comment on significance of ‘the Grave-digger scene’ in Hamlet.
PART B

Answer each question in about 100 words. Each question carries 10 marks.

2. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:

"O, Wonder!

How many goodly creatures are there here!

How beauteous mankind is! O brave new world,

That has such people in it."

3. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:

"If kill'd, but one dead that is willing to be so; I shall do my friends no wrong, for I have none to lament me; the world no injury, for in it I have nothing; only in the world I fill up a place, which may be better supplied, when I have made it empty."

4. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:

"... thou from the first

Wast present, and with mighty wings outspread

Dove-like sat'st brooding on the vast abyss

And mad'st it pregnant; what in me is dark

Illumine, what is low raise and support."

5. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:

"... Being so caught up,

So mastered by the brute blood of the air,

Did she put on his knowledge with his power

Before the indifferent beak could let her drop?"
6. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:

"When lovely woman stoops to folly and
Paces about her room again, alone,
She smooths her hair with automatic hand,
And puts a record on the gramophone."

7. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:

"Dust as we are, the immortal spirit grows
Like harmony in music; there is a dark
Inscrutable workmanship that reconciles
Discordant elements, makes them cling together
In one society."

8. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:

"Now all the youth of England are on fire,
And silken dalliance in the wardrobe lies;
Now thrive the armourers, and honour's thought
Reigns solely in the breast of every man;
They sell the pasture now, to buy the horse."

9. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:

"Well, I'll repent, and that suddenly while I am in some liking; I shall be out of heart shortly, and then I shall have no strength to repent. An I have not forgotten what the inside of a church is made of."

10. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:

"O, it offends me to the soul, to hear a robustious periwig-pated fellow rear a passion to tatters, to very rags, to split the ears of the groundlings; who for the most part, are capable of nothing but inexplicable dumb shows and noise."
11. Annotate the following passage with reference to the context:

"That woman's days were spent
In ignorant good-will,
Her nights in argument
Until her voice grew shrill.
What voice more sweet than hers
When, young and beautiful,
She rode to harriers?"
